Chapter 1 waking up

I woke up in the middle of a forest, I looked around with no memory of where I was. I knew I needed to find shelter but the night felt comforting, I got up when a twig snapped and two wolves stepped out of a bush.
"Who are you?" The largest male said.
"I think my name is Mystic I am not sure I can't remember anything," I said.
"She looks like the she-wolf from the legend?" The smallest male whispered to the older one.
"How can you think that, yeah she may look like the legendary MysticRain but that doesn't mean she is the legend," the oldest male said.
"May I catch your names?" I asked.
"My name is FireClaw and this is RougeFlame," the eldest said, his voice was somewhat familiar but I thought nothing of it.
"Come we will show you the pack," RougeFlame said his voice kind, I followed them to their pack which was not as big as a mighty pack but almost there. Most the wolves gave me stares of disbelief, I was very confused and when they noticed they looked away. I was padding along side FireClaw and RougeFlame when we reached a large den, it had marks from what seemed to be a battle long ago.
"FierceFighter we have a guest who looks like the wolf of legend but we can tell she isn't," RougeFlame called into the den, a large brown male stepped out of the den growling.
"What have I told you about....." he stopped mid sentence when he saw me, his eyes widened in fear than he came closer circling me.
"Sire we found her close to the borders, we found no scent around her so she either fell from the sky or something," RougeFlame said his voice joking.
"Silence, now she-wolf what is your name?" He asked.
"My name is Mystic from what I can recall other than that I know nothing," I said, he nodded and flicked his tail to tell us to come in. I padded in when we sat down in the centre of the cave, FierceFighter looked at the others and they left.

"I am going to test your fighting, if you pass you can stay in the pack if you fail....." he said when I cut him off.
"If I fail I either die or get chased out," I said, FierceFighter looked surprised.
"For a wolf that remembers nothing you know the rules," he said smirking, he suddenly jumped at me when I barked and he flew backwards. He got up shaking, his eyes filled with terror.
"You have returned to us Mysticmoon," FierceFighter said his voice shaky, I looked at him confused when he went to the back of the cave. He parted some vines and beckoned me to follow, I followed him into a room with a grey she-wolf in it.
"MoonRise I have found her, she has returned," FierceFighter said his voice proud.
"Leave us," she said her voice cracky, I sat near her as FierceFighter left.
"Why do they think I am the legend?" I asked.
"Because you are, I helped you forget in order to feel emotions again and now you can, if you aid us in the great battle that grows near we shall help you reunite with the others," MoonRise said, I nodded and she flicked her tail for me to leave. I felt strange and padded into the open, FierceFighter was giving a speech.
"The legend has returned!" FierceFighter howled, the others looked at me as I stepped next to him.
"I shall aid you in the upcoming battle and I do not ask anything in return, treat me as a normal she-wolf for now I can feel emotion I want to feel normal, not like a special wolf even though I am MysticMoon wolf of the moon, I want to be treated normally, that is all," I said, I jumped down from the Rock and the whole pack bowed to me. I nodded to them and they went back to doing their normal duties, a pup with jet black fur and green eyes wobbled over to me.
"Ummm hi MysticMoon my name is HollyWhisp and my mum wanted me to come meet you," she said her voice squeaky, I smiled and leaned down and touched noses with her.
"Hello HollyWhisp it is nice to meet you, you know if you follow your heart you can acomplish great things," I said, she looked at me her eyes filled with joy and happiness. I nudged her and she ran to her mother, she told her mother everything and I smiled, I layed down and fell asleep.

Chapter 2

I woke to find HollyWhisp playing not far away, I could sense something wonderful in her soul. She noticed me looking at her and came over, she sat next to me.
"Hi MysticMoon," she hipped happily.
"Hello HollyWhisp," I said, her presence near me felt strong and special. I padded into Risingmoon's den, she looked at me.
"Hello," she said.
"Hello I have come to talk to you about HollyWhisp, she has a special aura that feels familiar, it's strange," I said.
"Yes it is but I have never sensed it, maybe because you have aura you can sense it," she said slightly confused.
"Also if it is ok, when she is older I wish to train her to see if she has any powers like I do," I said, she nodded and I padded out to play with HollyWhisp. We played for a while, in the distance a howl sounded. I padded to the group and saw them crowding around a jet black wolf, his eyes were a crimson colour.
"Who are you?" I said my voice firm, he looked at me, the pack stepped back.
"My name is Deathslayer, I am a traveler and I mean no harm to this pack, I am looking for a place to rest," he said his voice calm, I stepped forward, the pack backed away a few steps.
"You can stay for tonight Deathslayer," Feircefighter said his voice stern, Deathslayer followed me into a den that no wolf slept in.
"You will sleep here until further notice," I said, I padded out and saw HollyWhisp again. This time she was playing with her mother, soon it would be time for her to train with me. Feircefighter howled to gather the pack, I knew it was time for HollyWhisp to be trained.
"Today a pup born into this pack is old enough to train, I will assign her to MysticMoon for training," he said his voice filled with happiness, he nodded to me and HollyWhisp sat next to me. He flicked his tail and we sperated, I padded to a small clearing not far from the pack to start training, I knew there was something coming, something I would never forget.

Chapter 3

I woke the next day to find HollyWhisp looking at a pool of water, she then looked at a tree and the roots of the tree went into the water. I padded up behind her, her eyes had a green fire in them.
"I see you found your power HollyWhisp," I said, she jumped slightly but didn't stop concentrating.
"Yeah I couldn't stop moving branches with my thoughts," she said pointing at a tree with its branches twisted.
"I see well anyway tonight I will show you my power," I said.
"Really!?" She said jumping up.
"Yeah now go get some rest," I said.
"Ok," she said bolting to her den, I smiled and looked at the sky. A cloud in the form of a wolf howling passed by, i knew what would happen if I howled tonight and it would effect HollyWhisp. I put my head down and went into my den to get ready to show HollyWhisp tonight, I lay down and fell asleep.

Hey guys

Hey everyone if you want a wolf to be added comment down below, also make sure they are formed like I have the wolves now. For example;
Holly + Whisp = HollyWhisp
Mystic + Moon = MysticMoon.

You get the picture right???

Chapter 4

I woke to a bouncing HollyWhisp, she was prodding my side with her paw.
"Come on wake up, you promised," she said bouncing about.
"I checked with the alpha before I told you, let's go before you wake up the pack," I said, we got to a hill. We managed to climb it, when we got to the top it was midnight.
"Wow this is so pretty," HollyWhisp said her face that of surprise, I sat facing the direction the moon would set.
"You ready?" I asked.
"Of course I am," HollyWhisp said, she sat beside me. I howled, my howl was sweet and kind. It was as though I was the moon, I felt as though I belonged with the moon and the stars. My howl caused the northern lights to appear, I stopped to take a few breaths and saw HollyWhisp's face was that of awe. I kept on howling and the stars started to move, they moved into the shape of howling wolves. I felt the power of my ancestors run through me, it felt as though they were howling with me. HollyWhisp joined in, together we made the forest sound alive. Our ancestors howled alongside us, when we finished howling the forest went quiet again and the stars went back to their normal places.
"That's what happens when I howl," I said.
"That was so cool, we better get back though," HollyWhisp said, we went down the mountain quicker then we went up. I went back to my spot at the packs main den, I lay down and fell asleep.

Chapter 5

I woke the next morning, it was quiet so I thought the pack had gone hunting.

Guys I forgot like all da pack so ya.

I noticed that FullMoon was staggering across the clearing, her old age catching up to her. I padded over to her, she dipped her head in greeting.
"As you guess the pack is hunting, and a few are on patrol to keep stray wolves and other packs away," she said her voice cracked, I nodded. A howl in the distance told me they caught something, I helped FullMoon to where the howl came from. We were eating when a gun sounded, our heads shot up to see a hunter. We all looked at FullMoon, he unusual coat was now a blood filled clump of fur. We all growled at the hunter, we all attacked him. He shot at us, we dodged the first few bullets but one of them managed to hit me. I stumbled backwards, the pack had killed the hunter when they noticed me. By then my eyes were closing, they crowded around me trying to save me. By the time they had patched up the whole I was too far gone, my eyes closed and all I saw was darkness. I saw a light to one side, the pack surrounding my body to the other. A wolf, her fur filled with stars appeared.
"You have two choices, you can be among your ancestors and let the world we were born into be destroyed or you can go back and save it," she said, I looked once more at both ways. I knew I had to make a choice, and I had to make it fast.

Cliff hanger guys, which way will she choose. Will she let the world be destroyed by a threat I am not telling you, or will she save the world from this threat. You decide in the comments which way she should choose, the most votes on either side will determine her choice.

Chapter 6

I looked at my ancestor, her eyes calm.
"I wish to go back," I said, she nodded and my soul was sucked back into my body. I woke and I found that the moon was rising, the pack looked at me their eyes closed. The full moon shone on me, a blue aura formed around me lifting me off the ground. The pack looked at me, their eyes shone with disbelief. I felt my wound heal, wings grew from my sides and the blue aura made my pelt have blue speckles. I felt as though I was one with thee moon, it's energy flowed through me. I landed and the blue aura blasted through the whole pack, I stood normally and they bowed.
"You have returned to us," Feircefighter said his gaze bright, I nodded.

Chapter 7

Many months had passed and I had had a pup of my own, her fur was a deep grey almost black. Feircefighter was her father, I nuzzled my new pup knowing she would be the one to save our world.
"I will call you Dreamingwillow for your fur is almost jet black, your as sweet as a dream, and your as gentle as a willow," I said nuzzling my pup, Feircefighter padded in his gaze happy.
"Our pup will be the best wolf to ever live," he said.
"Yes she will, yes she will," I said.

Hey guys sorry to say this book has come to an end, but there will be a book two do not fear. I hope you have enjoyed this book for what it is, until next time peace out.
